

Linda Belt

Linda Belt is a New Jersey native (a comedy routine in itself). She moved to CT in 1987 where she became a suburban pillar of the community attending PTO meetings and baseball games. Linda became very tired holding up that pillar and instead holds her own as a professional stand up comic. Her humor touches on the absurdities of modern life and explores marriage, sex, parenting and social mores, in other words: any subject she feels like discussing!

Linda has performed throughout the US and Canada and has been featured in a number of comedy festivals, including the Hogtown Comedy Festival (Toronto) the Detroit Comedy Festival, the Long Island Comedy Festival and the Boston Comedy Fest. Her many venues have included: The Wolf's Den at Mohegan Sun, Comedy Studio (Boston), NY Improv, the Broadway Comedy Club (NYC) & The Laugh Factory (NYC) as part of the "Broads of Broadway" show, Yuk Yuks International: Toronto & Halifax, Joe Franklin's (NYC), the Underground Comedy Club: (NYC), Brew Ha Ha Comedy Club at City Steam (Hartford), Governor's Comedy Club (Long Island) and Mark Ridley's Comedy Castle (Detroit). As a full-time working comic, she can be found at various local & national venues, fundraisers and corporate events.

Linda was profiled in the Hartford Courant, The Chicago Tribune as well as other publications throughout New England.

Her husband thinks she's playing mah-jongg!
